Presidents Message:

Apparently I am not a good communicator. At last month's meeting, I was criticized for thinking everyone should know his schedule in January for the upcoming year. Of course this would be ridiculous with life and situations as they are. Let me try again.

I suggest that when we put our events on a tentative schedule for the upcoming year, we should express our desire, or lack of desire, to participate. This way we would know if it would be worth the person in charge of the event his time to plan routes, arrange time frames, plan locations for meals, and arrange decent lodging for the group. If there are only two people interested, perhaps we should look for an alternative plan for more people to participate. This does not mean the two people interested would not go ahead and plan the event for the two of them.

Or, perhaps we should only schedule our events three months at a time. January, plan January through March; March, plan April through June; June, plan July through September; etc. Of course we know we would plan some events at the first of the year so we could try to schedule time for them: Healey Days, Christmas Dinner and so on.

Remember the trip to Mesa Verde? There were eight or nine cars of us. That was great participation. And that trip was three nights on the road. I know there are quite a few of you that cannot afford the time of overnight trips, so we should schedule day trips. One suggestion (Jon Hanson) is a drive up Big Cottonwood Canyon and have a meal at the Silver Fork Lodge, or a drive up Little Cottonwood Canyon to Snowbird and ride the tram. Let's all rack our brains and come up with many more single-day drives.

Those of you heading out to Colorado Springs for Conclave have a safe and wonderful time and we are all looking forward to seeing pictures and hearing about this event.

Keep 'em rolling,
Ann

FROM THE EDITOR:

Here comes July, Sandy and I will start it out with the trip to Conclave. I sure wish more of our club were going. It looks to be a great event. Then on July 29 – 31 comes Healey Days 2011. In this issue you will find the registration form and the menu for the banquet. Get your registration in soon as Jim says we are filling up fast. Watch you emails and the web site for updates on the event. Joe Morley has volunteered to take photos of all the cars entered this year. The plan is to take them with the greenery at the base of The Town Lift as a background, which is near the bridge in the middle of the show area. In order to take the picture with the driver in the car, you will need to enter from 9th Street. After the picture is taken you will be directed where to park. We will need to start lining up at 8:30 in order to have all the cars in place at 10:00. The route for the Drive on Sunday is not firmed up yet, as I am waiting to see how many roads survive the runoff from the record snowfall.

This year a drawing for the complimentary AHCA 2012 membership (and Bonneville) will be done at the dinner. To have your name in the hat you must be registered for the Healey Days event. See you at Healey Days, if not before. Happy Healeying,
Dave

Auto Museum/Grand Mesa, Colorado Trip

Don Colman has put together another interesting trip to include fantastic scenery and interesting auto museums for our club's trip in September. The time-frame is September 16 through the 19th.

You must make your reservations now.

Grand Junction is having a big Wine Festival on this particular weekend so rooms are filling up fast.

We will leave Salt Lake the morning of September 16 and head to Grand Junction, through Vernal, to Rangely, then over Douglas Pass and onto Grand Junction. We will be staying at the Holiday Inn Express on Rae Lyn Street. The next morning, September 17, after a continental breakfast, we will tour Tammy Allen's Unique Auto Museum in Grand Junction. Then onto I-70 to the Grand Mesa for site-seeing and lunch and to Cedaredge and the Cedaredge Lodge for dinner, lodging and breakfast.

The morning of September 18 we will travel towards Green River, Utah, traveling through Delta, Colorado; Gateway (another great auto museum), La Sal, La Sal Junction, Moab, and to the River Terrace Inn in Green River for the night. A full-course breakfast is included in this lodging as well. September 19 we are headed home through Salina, where we will have lunch at the famous Mom's Café. Then onto Goshen, Elberta and the west side of Utah Lake on Redwood Road.

Blocks of rooms at all lodgings are held under Don Colman and/or BAHC; please make your individual reservations at the following lodgings:

September 16 (Fri) Grand Junction	Holiday Inn Express, 970-245-8164
September 17 (Sat.) Cedaredge	Cedaredge Lodge, 970-201-5710
September 18 (Sun) Green River	River Terrace Inn, 435-564-3401

I hope you all can make this tour. It's fun, beautiful and you are supporting your club's activities.

Membership:

Currently 49 paid members

Thank you letters from the Utah Food Bank, and Hiroshi Takamora of the Japan club were read. The Japanese club sent Key fobs, and Grill Badges as a token of thanks. Those items will be auctioned at Healey Days on July 30. Hopefully we can contribute more donations to charitable causes in the future.

Upcoming events were discussed with some concern that many of our events are not well attended. Check out the remaining events for the year on the web site and plan to support them.
