President's Message

HOW HOT WILL IT GET?

I'm writing this column a little early this month due to the fact Sandy and I will just be getting back from the Rendezvous on the deadline to submit the article to Allen Brown for the August Bonneville Banter. We have checked the Hundred out and are pretty sure that it's ready for the 2,000 mile trip. We are also in the process of paring down the packing for 10m days on the road. This sometimes can be the hard point on longer Healey trips. I sometimes envy the people with luggage racks on their cars. We've done it before so I suppose we will do it again, so I've learned how to approach the "we probably don't need that" comment with a little diplomacy. By the same token, Sandy has learned how to pare down her "needs" so it will all fit in the boot.

The Tech Session/Barbeque at John and Gloria Morrison's was a real welcome change for the club events. Even with their house undergoing a major renovation the Morrison's put on a really memorable event. Check out the website for full coverage of the event.

Don Colman has planned a great event for Healey Days on August 12-13. If you haven't made your plans to attend, you really should do it soon. Healey Days is basically the only fund raising event for the Bonneville Austin-Healey club. The car show entry fees very seldom cover the cost of the awards, so to make the event a true fund raiser we need lots of door prizes/raffle items to entice us all to buy lots of tickets. Be sure and check out your treasure chests for items you can part with for a very good cause.

The Standings on the Presidents Challenge currently are:

- | | |
|--------------------------|------------|
| 1. Doug & Ann Lewis | 137 points |

|------------------------|---------------|
| Ann & Doug Lewis | Ernie Reno |
| Dave and Sandy Maxwell | Jim Thornton |
| Allen & Judy Brown | Bob Jahnke |
| Joe Morley | John Morrison |
| Don & Marion Colman | Mike Gygi |

The June meeting was held at Marie Callender's and minutes were published in the Banner. No discussion of those minutes was undertaken at this meeting.

Old Business:

Item 1. The Club banner exists. Dave Maxwell showed it to the members present.

Item 2. A change for the bank account is being considered. Bob Jahnke thinks it will be beneficial to relocate to Zions Bank.

Item 3. BMCU has announced an on demand mailing for its newsletter and BANC will be doing the same. The Banter will be mailed only to members who make a specific request for a hard copy.

Reports:

Item 1. Treasurer's report, BobJahnke reporting: Current status is that the bank account is positive and currently stands at approximately $3,700 with payments of about $280 made for web fees and AHCA fees. Anticipated expenses for the Banter are about $100.

Item 2. Don Colman is seeking door prizes donations from anyone who who is willing for Healey Days at Brighton Resort, which scheduled for August 12 & 13. Be there or be square.

Activities:

Item 1. July 15th Tech Session: John Morrison garage, 5009 Holladay Blvd. with a barbecue. Members who attend will bring food and color suggestions for the Morrison house, crutches and Band-aids for John.

Meeting adjourned at 8:35 p.m.

Trip to Nelson, BC

(Our Version) Our trip to Nelson, BC started at 3 p.m. on Friday, July 21, at 13th South and 3rd West; the start of a Holiday weekend. The temperature was nearing 103°, and we stood in the shade of a semi's trailer waiting for all to arrive. Leaving on I-15 heading north the Maxwell's, Colman's, Jahnke's, and Lewis's encountered horrendous stop and go-a-foot traffic from Kaysville to North Ogden. The Healey's did remarkably well even at 230°.

The first night was spent at the Burley Inn in Burley, Idaho. The next day we were on to Sun Valley, had a refreshing drink, looked around Ketchum and then on towards the headwaters of the Salmon River. Convoying along at around 75 mph, a deer darted out and leaped over the bonnet of the Jahnke's car. After everyone caught their breath, we lunched at Stanley, Idaho. That night we were at Salmon, Idaho, in rooms with balconies facing the river. The next day we were on to Kalispell, Montana, where we spent the night. The next day's breakfast was in Libby, Montana, where we were introduced to Huckleberries at Henry's Café.

We then proceeded to Bonner's Ferry and on to the border crossing by Creston, BC, over the border and on to the drive along the east side of Kootenay Lake up to Kootenay Bay and onto the ferry that crosses to Balfour Harbor. A scenic drive took us on to Nelson, BC. The hotel was very nice, with a patio overlooking the boat docks on the lake.

The Healey Rendezvous in Nelson was somewhat of a disappointment; many of the events were cancelled presumably because there were too many cars. We were told there were about 200 cars. There was a car show at the Lakeside Park, which was nice but hot.

The eight of us took a walking tour of Historical Buildings in the City of Nelson, which was very interesting; we strolled through a street market; stopped at coffee houses for refreshment; found restaurants for dinners with live musical entertainment; had cocktails every night in the Lewis's "theme" room (Don insisted we must have had Nubian slaves that came to our room after the others went to their rooms).

The drive back to Utah was beautiful. We went through Sandpoint, Idaho, on to Coeur d'Alene, around the east side of the lake, on to Clarkston for the first night. Next day we went through McCall on Payette Lake, on through Boise to Twin Falls for the next night. The next morning (early) we left for Salt Lake arriving at our home in Sandy around 10 a.m.
